

pe and helps quench that raging the smaller 200-pound cakes by very to Washington homes.

Photo by I. Pridgoun, Staff Photographer.

Paderewski, Polish musician and patriot, is now a grower of almonds, his groves of trees located near Los Angeles. Paderewski says he will spend the remainder of his life along the Pacific coast of the United States.

International Film Service.

A dip in a basin which is not affected by the ebb and flow of the tides. This youngster is a summer visitor at Camp Good Will, where hundreds of tiny Washingtonians spend happy summer days.

By I. Pridgoun, Staff Photographer.

Mrs. Coolidge, taking in all the sights around the town usly engrossed in the mechanism of one of the captured vin, jr., at the left and John at right.

© Harris & Ewing.

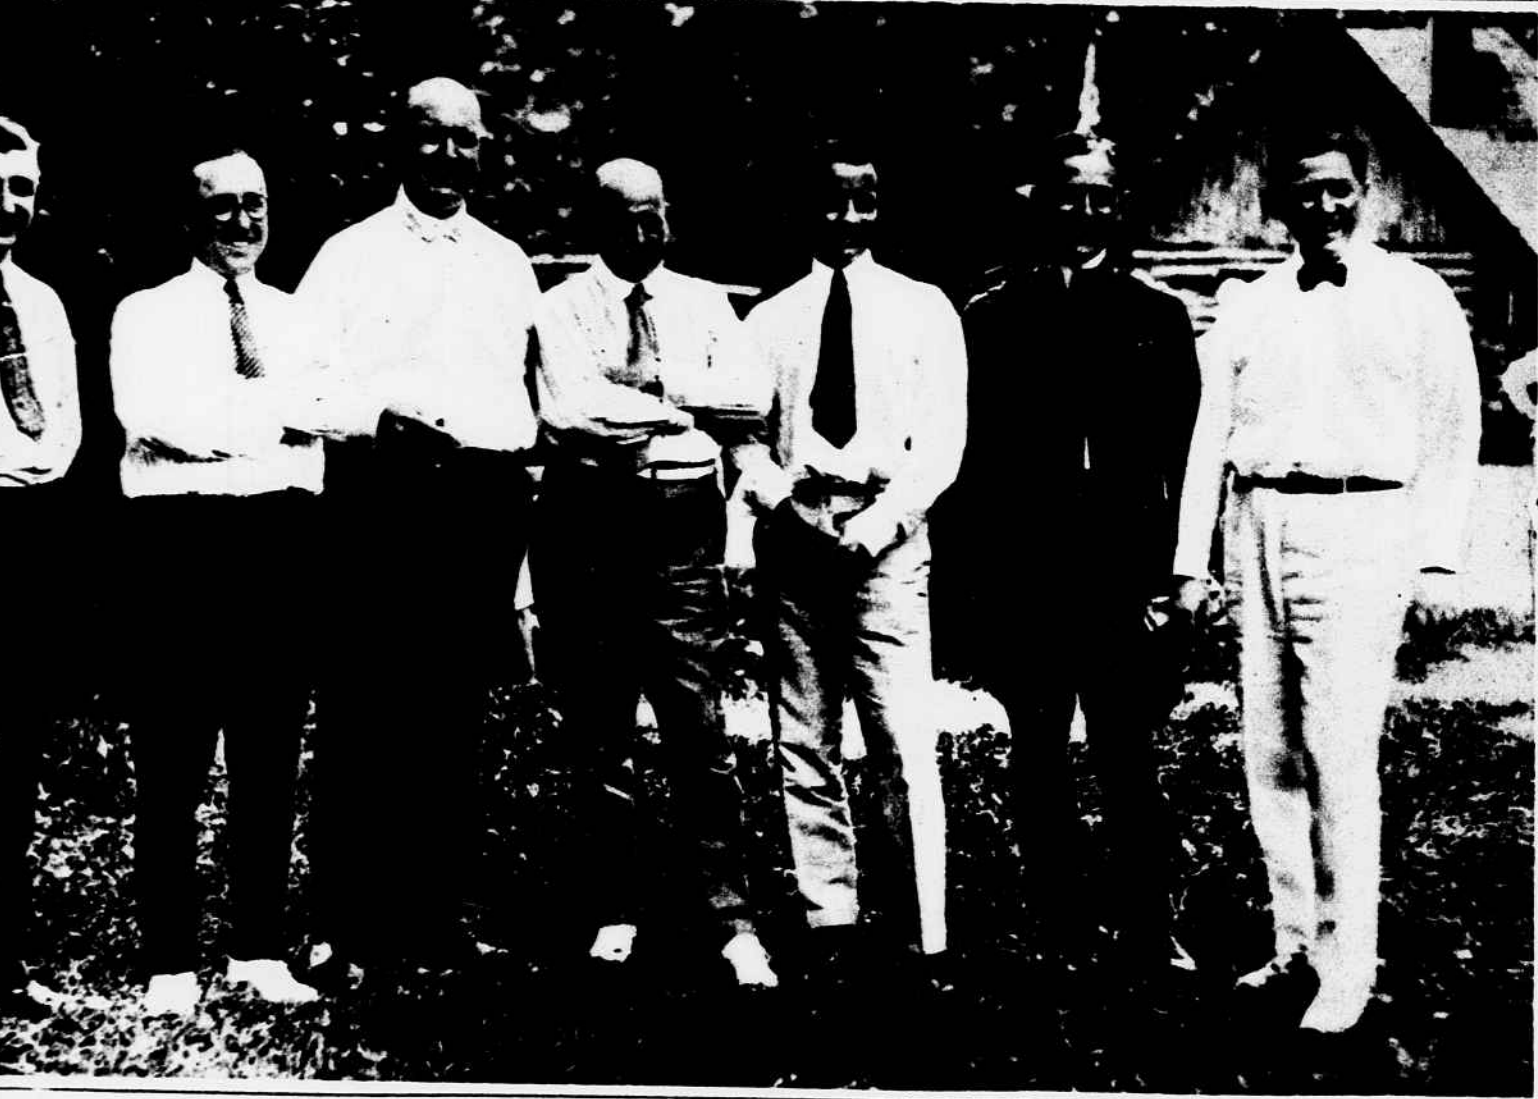

Another income tax joke. But this is one on the collector. This French woman is using a ruse to avoid paying revenue by writing on her door, "Mr. Tax Collector, nobody home."

© Keystone View Co.

One jump ahead in summer styles for bonnets. Little Miss Lilian Tashman, recently playing in the "Gold Diggers," but since deserted to the movies, wearing an odd little hat built on aviation lines.

Wide World Photo.

ay's outing and seemingly having a rather jolly time, far from the cares of the maritime and business world. A few of the picnic of the Rotary Club recently held in Rock Creek Park. Reading from left to right; Edward Stock, Charles ry of the Navy Denby, Charles Semmes, president of the club; Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy; Col. al aide to President Harding, and E. C. Johansen.

By I. Pridgoun, Staff Photographer.

Perhaps this accounts for the interested expressions on the faces of the Rotarians and their guests in the accompanying photograph during their jaunt in the park. Phyllis Everett and Ardis Reed in esthetic dances, one of the most engrossing features on the afternoon's program.

By I. Pridgoun, Staff Photographer.